

"In the southwest corner of Arkansas, there's a very famous river named the Red River. It flows out of the Rocky Mountains all the way down to the Mississippi River. That's it on the right. On the left is the Sulphur River that flows out of Texas to join the Red River near Texarkana. Did you know that the Red River was once the boundary between the United States and Mexico?"

58

"This is the courthouse at Old Washington State Park. The town of Washington is one of the oldest in Arkansas."

59